Each business offers different opportunities, investment levels, and growth potential, so it's important to choose one that aligns with your skills, interests, and financial goals.

Before You Buy

Before making an offer, make sure you:

- Review the business's financial statements.
- Understand why the owner is selling.
- Evaluate the location and customer base.
- Check existing contracts and lease agreements.
- Assess the business's growth potential.
- Conduct thorough due diligence.

A little research upfront can help you make a confident and informed investment.

Why Buy an Existing Business?

Buying an established business often gives you advantages such as:

- An existing customer base
- Immediate cash flow
- Established suppliers
- Trained staff
- Recognised brand presence
- Proven business systems

These benefits can significantly reduce the risks often associated with starting a new business from scratch.
