About the Business:

Fabric and Haberdashery Retail Business for Sale

An exceptional opportunity is available to acquire a well-established fabric and haberdashery retail business that has been serving the Garden Route community for more than three decades. Renowned for quality products, knowledgeable advice, and outstanding customer service, this business has become the first choice for generations of sewing, knitting, quilting, and craft enthusiasts.

Operating in the thriving creative lifestyle market, the business has built an enviable reputation and enjoys a loyal customer base that continues to return year after year.

The fabric and haberdashery retail business offers a carefully selected range of products, including:

- Fabric and haberdashery retail business for sale
- Quality fabrics
- Haberdashery supplies
- Wool and knitting products
- Quilting materials
- Sewing accessories
- Craft supplies

Its broad product offering attracts hobbyists, designers, dressmakers, crafters, and creative professionals from across the region.

One of the business' greatest strengths is its diversified revenue model. Multiple income streams provide stability while operating in a resilient retail sector that continues to benefit from growing interest in handmade products and creative hobbies.

Combined with excellent product margins, this creates a profitable business with strong long-term potential.

Key benefits include:

- Established for more than 30 years
- Well-known and respected local brand
- Loyal repeat customer base
- Multiple stable income streams
- Excellent gross profit margins
- Located in the popular Garden Route
- Fully operational with established supplier relationships
- Opportunity for future growth

This fabric and haberdashery retail business is ideally suited to an owner-operator looking for a rewarding lifestyle business that combines creativity with sustainable income.

It also presents an excellent opportunity for an existing retailer wishing to expand into the growing craft, sewing, and hobby market through an established and profitable operation.

For buyers seeking a long-term investment, the opportunity extends beyond the business itself.

The business premises are also available for purchase at an additional R3.9 million, allowing the successful buyer to own both the profitable business and the commercial property.

Businesses with this level of longevity, customer loyalty, and market reputation seldom become available.

If you are looking to invest in a respected fabric and haberdashery retail business with proven success and significant future potential, this opportunity deserves your attention.

The asking price excludes stock valued at approximately R1.8 million.
