About the Business:

Fire protection equipment and servicing business

Established premier one-stop business for comprehensive fire protection needs domiciled inland in the Western Cape region. Servicing and maintenance of fire protection equipment, the business has an extremely large client base who are serviced on a cyclical basis to ensure legal compliance of the customer's needs. The business specialises in servicing, refilling, repairing, and installing select fire equipment, and sales of allied equipment such as fire blankets, SABS-approved signage, high volume sound horns etc. The servicing and maintenance is a need for businesses and premises where regulations require that fire prevention and controls are compliant. Customers include pre-schools and schools, restaurants and guesthouses, churches, sports venues, garages and workshops, shops, factories etc. Over the past 4 years the Owner has built this business into the main “go-to” business for fire safety in the region. The business and the Owner are fully compliant with the licencing and legal requirements to operate under stringent conditions where all visits and servicing and sales require a very rigid paper trail and legal and insurance company compliance

Branch out into allied business opportunities such as Health and Safety, First Aid etc

Threats?

There are no known threats to this business if the Owner maintains the current service levels.

What is the reason for the sale?

The Owners feel that they have reached a point where they can afford to scale down and spend more personal time with family etc and as such would like to relinquish the business.

Why is this a good business?

This is not a difficult business to manage, just so long as the territory is well covered on a cyclical basis and the customers requirements are met.
An ideal business for a married couple who would like to work hard from Monday to Friday but enjoy the free time offered over weekends in a tranquil and healthy semi-Karoo environment.
The current rental is very attractive and the premises are very well located.....however the business can easily be relocated if so desired.
