About the Business:

Thriving Private School with Proven Growth Potential

An established independent, thriving private school with proven growth potential in the Garden Route, Western Cape, South Africa, is available for acquisition — a profitable, well-managed education business with a decade of trading history and a strong local reputation.

Operating across pre-school through to the senior grades, the school has grown steadily year on year, adding higher grades as demand has increased. This Principal-run, thriving private school with proven growth potential benefits from small class sizes, a loyal parent community, and consistent enrolment, giving a new owner a stable, income-generating foundation from day one.

Why this thriving private school stands out:

* Principal-run, not owner-run dependent

* Recurring income from predictable term-based school fees

* Established brand and reputation built over years

* Scalability through additional grades, enrolment growth and complementary services

* Barriers to entry, as regulatory registration and compliance are already in place

* Experienced staff and operational systems supporting a smooth handover

Ideal for an education-focused investor or education provider seeking to expand to the Garden Route, Western Cape

This growing, fully operational going concern suits an education-focused owner-operator, an investor group, or an existing education provider looking to expand its footprint in a high-demand, fast-growing region. With the capacity to increase learner numbers and broaden its offering, this thriving, growing private school rewards hands-on leadership and long-term vision.

The asking price excludes the property where the school is based. The landlord is prepared to sign a long-term lease with the new owner.
