About the Business:

Established Scrapyard and Auto Spares Business

An exceptional opportunity has arisen to acquire an established scrapyard & auto spares business in the greater Cape Town area.

Established for many years, this scrapyard & auto spares business has built a household name, a fiercely loyal customer base, and an undisputed reputation for reliability, quality parts, and excellent service.

Operating from a strategically located, fully permitted facility with excellent roadside visibility and seamless transport access, this highly successful, reputable scrapyard and auto spares business serves a diverse and growing market.

Revenue streams are highly resilient and well-diversified, spanning walk-in retail cash customers, local mechanical workshops, commercial fleet accounts, and bulk scrap metal recycling contracts.

This scrapyard & auto spares business is widely recognised in the community and enjoys a loyal client base, including mechanics, vehicle owners, and local businesses.

With its long history and proven track record, it offers stability and reliability, making it an attractive investment for those seeking immediate returns and long-term growth.

The well-catalogued inventory features high-demand engines, gearboxes, body panels, and electronic components for a wide variety of vehicle makes and models.

With a skilled, long-standing team already in place, the business practically runs itself, making it an ideal acquisition for an industry investor looking to expand their footprint, or an entrepreneur seeking a high-yield, recession-proof enterprise.

Don’t miss out on acquiring a dominant player in Cape Town’s lucrative automotive recycling sector.
