About the Business:

Cosy Coffee Shop with Loyal Customers

Owning a cosy coffee shop with loyal customers is about more than serving great coffee. It's about creating a place where customers return regularly, relationships are built, and a sense of community develops. This established Garden Route coffee shop is looking for a new owner to step into a welcoming hospitality business with an existing, regular, returning customer base and the chance to make a meaningful impact through hands-on ownership.

The business has built a reputation around its intimate atmosphere, friendly service and comfortable café environment. Regular patrons form the backbone of the customer base, creating a familiar and welcoming setting that keeps customers coming back.

This cosy coffee shop with loyal customers offers an inviting space ideal for casual meetings, coffee catch-ups and light dining. An established team is already in place, including kitchen and front-of-house staff, providing operational continuity for a new owner.

The sale includes a comprehensive asset base featuring quality furniture, display units, an Italian coffee machine, coffee grinder, commercial kitchen equipment and POS systems with an estimated replacement value exceeding R500,000.

The business is offered for sale as the owners are pursuing immigration opportunities.

This business is ideally suited to someone who enjoys creating memorable customer experiences, building relationships with regular customers and growing a hospitality business they can truly call their own.

This is ideally suited to a buyer seeking a lifestyle business with character, loyal customers and established infrastructure. The foundations are in place, and the next chapter will benefit from an owner who is present, engaged and enthusiastic about hospitality.

If you've been looking for a cosy coffee shop where your energy and personal touch can make a real difference, enquire today for more information.
