Start an owner-operated business services agency using the relationships you already have with business owners. You identify when an owner needs help and, with their permission, introduce them to experienced specialists through REVV Connect.

Specialists provide the appraisals, financial expertise or business sale support. You build the relationships and may earn fees on qualifying work under the agency agreement.

Your day-to-day role: speak to owners, recognise opportunities, make relevant introductions and follow up. This is active business development, not passive investment income.

Products and services:

- Business appraisals: helping owners get a clearer picture of business performance, value and priorities.
- Part-time finance support: access to experienced finance specialists without employing a full-time finance executive.
- Preparing to sell a business: specialist help for owners considering a future business sale or exit.

R87,750 once-off agency fee, excluding VAT. Includes the first six months of subscription. From month seven, the ongoing subscription is R1,500 per month.

Estimated first-year commission earnings: R351,000, based on an illustrative activity model before operating expenses. Actual net profit will depend on performance and costs.

Online-based business operated remotely. No premises required.

- Ongoing subscription: R1,500 per month from month seven. The first six months of subscription are included in the once-off agency fee.
