Strengths?

Unique Advertising Concept: Uses large LCD screens in doctors' reception areas, offering a captive audience and high visibility.

Affordable for SMEs: Positioned as a cost-effective solution for local small businesses, making it accessible to a wide market.

Strong Franchise Support: Offers full training, operational systems, and ongoing support to franchisees.

Positive Client Testimonials: Multiple endorsements highlight effectiveness, service quality, and ROI.

Design & Content Management: Ads are professionally designed and regularly updated.

Weaknesses?

Limited Audience Scope: Exposure is confined to people visiting medical practices, which may not suit all business types.

Dependence on Physical Locations: Maintenance of hardware after warranty period.

Opportunities?

Expansion into New Regions: Potential to scale into more towns and suburbs across South Africa

Diversification of Venues: Could extend screens into other high traffic waiting areas (e.g., dentists, vets, etc)

Digital Integration: Adding mobile or online ad components could broaden reach and offer hybrid packages.

Partnerships with Health Brands: Aligning with wellness or pharmaceutical companies could enhance credibility and revenue.

Threats?

Competition from Digital Platforms: Online advertising offers broader reach and detailed analytics, which may attract budget-conscious clients.

Regulatory Changes: Advertising within medical environments may face scrutiny or restrictions.

What is the reason for the sale?

Franchisor is selling his own franchises.
