About the Business:

Become an owner of a lucrative online wine business

Online businesses are the future, and this owner has been building this business meticulously up over 5 years and have a strong loyal clientele basis with huge opportunities to expand the business locally and also enter the export market

With an off consumer liquor license and all management functions in place, its really a situation of walking in and continuing with the business

The target market is the clients that can afford wines that are not in the top bracket of export wines but still prefer quality wines, purchasing these wines at considerable savings which is very important in our existing economy

Wines vary from young, rare wines to vintage wines- 100% local from the Western Cape

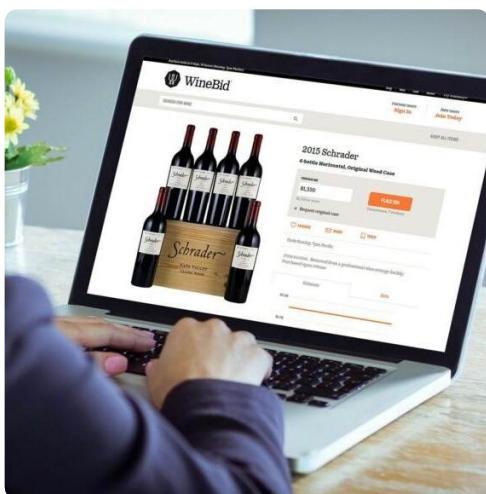

Clients can also choose non label wines and can then brand their wine bottles according to the occasion/celebration etc

The business is operating from a business premises that has got an off consumption liquor license so the business cannot be moved except if a new premise goes through the steps of getting approval from the Liquor Board

Assets of +/- R100,000 is included in the sale
