About the Business:

Established Shoe Retail Store

Step into a proven, profitable opportunity with this well-established shoe retail store based in the Garden Route, Western Cape, South Africa. This business has been successfully trading for nearly three years in a prime, high-footfall location. Catering to both loyal locals and visiting tourists in a popular shopping destination, the business has built a strong reputation for quality footwear and exceptional, personalised customer service.

Stocking trusted, well-known brands such as Jellos, Crocs, Skechers, Bata, and Tomy, the store offers a wide selection of stylish and comfortable shoes for both men and women. Customer care is at the heart of the business, creating a welcoming shopping experience that keeps clients returning.

This is a turnkey operation, complete with established supplier relationships, operational know-how, and a proven business model. It's perfectly suited to a semi-retired individual who enjoys engaging with people and staying active, or a motivated entrepreneur ready to take the reins.

With its solid foundation and strong brand presence, the business also offers exciting potential for expansion into multiple locations for a buyer with vision.

Asking price excludes stock of approximately R150,000.
