About the Business:

Bottle store for sale

Moses Liquor Store is a high-performing, independently owned liquor retailer operating at the intersection of Roodepoort and Soweto. With over 8 years of strong trading history, the business has built a loyal customer base, established supplier relationships, and consistent monthly revenue, offering an attractive acquisition for investors. The store is located in a busy shopping center with high foot traffic, anchored by a well-known butcher, a fruit and vegetable outlet, and various other small businesses. This complementary retail environment drives consistent daily customer flow and supports strong sales performance.
