About the Business:

Premium Beauty Salon Clinic

An exceptional business for sale opportunity awaits an ambitious entrepreneur or investor seeking a high-performing premium beauty salon clinic in Cape Town, Western Cape, South Africa.

This premium beauty salon clinic flagship location opened in November 2024 and is strategically positioned in one of Cape Town's most prestigious new upper-class malls. The setting delivers consistent high-end foot traffic, strong visibility, and access to an affluent, fast-growing customer base.

This premium beauty salon clinic has already established powerful brand momentum, supported by a loyal, diverse, and growing client base. The brand has been carefully developed with a modern, inclusive approach, catering to all genders while maintaining a strong appeal to a predominantly female market. The business already shows an increase of 40% in revenue for 2026!

The business operates with a curated, streamlined product offering, designed for efficiency, high margins, and ease of management. This lean operational model makes it highly attractive for both hands-on owners and portfolio investors looking for scalable assets.

As a business for sale, this opportunity stands out due to its premium positioning, proven demand, and exceptional location within a rapidly expanding luxury retail environment. The foundation is already in place: branding is established, operations are stable, and customer demand is consistently strong.

Significant growth potential remains untapped. With the right ownership, this premium beauty salon clinic can be expanded into multiple locations, potentially building a dominant national footprint in the premium beauty sector across South Africa. The annual sales revenue is reflected by one working therapist with two dedicated treatment rooms. Bringing in a second therapist can double the sales!

The current owner has recently advanced in his primary career and is unable to dedicate the required operational focus. This creates a rare opening for a motivated buyer to step in and accelerate the brand's next growth phase.

Serious buyers looking for a high-quality business for sale in the premium beauty industry are invited to engage. This is not just a salon—it is a scalable, modern beauty brand with strong fundamentals and clear expansion potential.
